

Misbranding was alleged in that the statement "Net Contents $\frac{1}{2}$ Gallon" was false and misleading and tended to deceive and mislead purchasers; and in that the article was food in package form and the quantity of the contents was not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the package, since the quantity stated was not correct.

On October 17, 1938, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered and the product was ordered delivered to a public institution.

29666. Adulteration of butter. U. S. v. 33 Tubs of Butter. Consent decree of condemnation. Product released under bond to be reworked. (F. & D. No. 44241. Sample Nos. 19533-D, 27046-D.)

This product contained less than 80 percent of milk fat.

On October 17, 1938, the United States attorney for the Southern District of New York, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 33 tubs of butter at New York, N. Y.; alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about October 6, 1938, by Kelliher Creamery Co. from Kelliher, Minn.; and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that a product containing less than 80 percent by weight of milk fat had been substituted for butter, a product which should contain not less than 80 percent of milk fat as provided by act of March 4, 1923.

On October 25, 1938, the Kelliher Creamery Co., claimant, having admitted the allegations of the libel and having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation was entered and the product was ordered released under bond, conditioned that it be reworked so that it contain not less than 80 percent of milk fat.

29667. Adulteration and misbranding of cheese. U. S. v. 100 Cases of Cheddar Cheese. Decree of condemnation. Product released under bond for reprocessing. (F. & D. No. 43677. Sample No. 19174-D.)

This product was deficient in fat.

On September 2, 1938, the United States attorney for the Southern District of California, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 100 cases of cheese at Los Angeles, Calif.; alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about July 30 and August 6, 1938, by the Brooklawn Creamery Co. from Panguitch, Utah; and charging adulteration and misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part: "Whole Milk Cheddar Cheese."

Adulteration was alleged in that a substance deficient in fat had been mixed and packed with the article so as to reduce or lower its quality. Misbranding was alleged in that the statement "Whole Milk Cheddar Cheese" was false and misleading and tended to deceive and mislead the purchaser when applied to an article deficient in fat. It was alleged to be misbranded further in that it was offered for sale under the distinctive name of another article.

On October 20, 1938, the Brooklawn Creamery Co., claimant, having admitted the allegations of the libel and having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation was entered, and it was ordered that the product be released under bond conditioned that it be reprocessed under the supervision of this Department.

29668. Misbranding of butter. U. S. v. Estal Draut (Rising Sun Creamery Co.). Plea of guilty. Fine, $25. (F. & D. No. 42566. Sample Nos. 1911-D, 4207-D.)

This product was short weight.

On September 23, 1938, the United States attorney for the Southern District of Indiana, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court an information against Estal Draut, trading as the Rising Sun Creamery Co., Rising Sun, Ind., alleging shipment by said defendant in violation of the Food and Drugs Act as amended, on or about May 6 and May 13, 1938, from the State of Indiana into the State of Ohio of quantities of butter which was misbranded. The article was labeled in part: (Carton) "Red Ribbon Creamery Butter * * * The Churn Gold Corporation, Cincinnati, Ohio,
